Re: B&A Corporate Advisors Advises Agri-Nutrients on its Sale to Turf Care Supply

London, Ontario: Mergers and Acquisitions advisory firm, B&A Corporate Advisors, is pleased to announce the sale of Agri-Nutrients to Turf Care Supply, a portfolio company of Platte River Equity. Eric Bosveld, President of B&A Corporate Advisors, acted as the exclusive Sell-Side M&A Advisor to Agri-Nutrients throughout the process.

“We are excited about joining the Turf Care team,” said Jim Montgomery, President of Agri-Nutrients. “At Agri-Nutrients, our core values center around customer service and product innovation, and we are confident that this combination will allow us to better serve the needs of our customers.”

“Eric is very familiar with the process of selling businesses in our sector and was able to find a qualified purchaser that was a perfect match for us. His attention to detail throughout the entire process kept us on track,” said Gary Mayberry, Agri-Nutrients Controller. “Eric was able to organize and prioritize every detail to bring this transaction to completion.”

Eric Bosveld stated, “From the very beginning of our competitive sell-side process, Turf Care Supply showed strong interest in acquiring Agri-Nutrients. The strategic fit was compelling and the Agri-Nutrients team, its customers and other stakeholders will be well served under its new ownership. It has been a privilege to work with Jim, Gary and the Agri-Nutrients team and satisfying to see such a great outcome for everyone!”
